

Memorandum of Friendly Exchange Relations Between Anqing City, Anhui Province, P.R. China and Sunnyvale, California, USA

PURPOSE: To help promote the mutual understanding and cooperation between Anqing City, Anhui Province, P.R. China (hereinafter referred to as "Party A") and Sunnyvale, California, USA (hereinafter referred to as "Party B"). Parties A and B hereby agree to establish friendly exchange relations through friendly consultations as follows:

1. Both parties will seek to develop various exchanges and co-operation on community and economic development, cultural exchange, education, technology, business, and trade on a fair and mutually beneficial basis.
2. Both parties will seek to keep regular contact regarding discussion and consultation on above exchange and co-operation, as well as common issues of mutual interest.
3. Whenever possible, both parties will encourage the businesses in each city to seek opportunities to develop various forms of partnerships with their counterparts.
4. Whenever needed and agreed upon by both sides, each party will seek to help organize exchange activities, including possible support for other party's events. For specific projects or events, a specified agreement will be signed by all related parties.

THE UNDERSIGNED AGREE:

Party A

Zhu du wen

Signature

Zhu Duwen
Mayor, Anqing City, P.R. China
Date: November 4, 2003

Party B

Julia E. Miller

Signature

Julia E. Miller
Mayor, Sunnyvale, California, USA
Date: November 4, 2003